PUBLIC NOTICES

Calcutta 1, the 4th May 1963

Sub:—Import of Standard Size Sheets against Import Licence for Sheet Cuttings (Under Industrial Scrap) and Plates against Import Licence for Plate Cuttings (Under Industrial Scrap) by Actual Users only.

No. 1/1-7/63—If Sheet Cuttings, and Sheets (Prime) are licensable items to Actual Users in any Licensing period there will be no objection to the import of Standard Size Sheets (Prime or defective) against Actual Users Import Licence for Sheet Cuttings within the C.I.F. Value licensed provided the concerned licence has been amended by the Licensing Authority prior to arrival of consignment at Destination Port

It has also been decided that Actual Users may be allowed to import Standard Size Plates (Prime or defective) in lieu of Plate Cuttings (under Industrial Scrap) although Plate is not a licensable category, provided the importer can satisfy with documentary evidence to the Licensing Authority that he is able to import Standard Size Plates (Prime or defective) at a price cheaper than or equivalent to price of Plate Cuttings. Actual Users desirous of importing Standard Size Plates (Prime or defective) in lieu of Plate Cuttings should, therefore, approach the Licensing Authority with documentary evidence prior to shipment with the request for amendment of the Licence.

Iron & Steel Controller

Calcutta 1, the 8th May 1963

Ref. 1/1-1/IP/FA/AS/63—It has been decided by the Government of India to transfer from licensing period commencing from 1st April 1963, the licensing of import and export of Ferro-Alloys to the jurisdiction of Iron & Steel Controller from that of the Chief Controller of Imports & Exports.

So far as import of Ferro-Alloys as indicated in the attached Schedule is concerned, it has been decided to issue import licences for a period of 6 months (April 1963 to September 1963) for all these items to the actual users only.

Import Licence applications for the items shown in the Schedule should, therefore, be submitted by the Actual Users in duplicate to the proper Sponsoring Authorities and one copy of the application with necessary application fees to the Iron & Steel Controller (at his Headquarters Office), Calcutta. The applications and copies should be submitted so as to reach the above authority by the 15th July 1963 at the latest. Where the Iron & Steel Controller himself is the Sponsoring Authority, all the three copies as stated above should be submitted to him.

Regarding sponsoring of applications, i.e., issue of Essentiality Certificates for import licence, separate instructions will be issued to the Sponsoring Authorities in due course.

Import Licences will also be issued to the Established Importers for items under serial No. 11 only for a period of six months, i.e. April to September 1963. The Established Importers should submit their applications in duplicate together with application fees, Original Base Quota issued by the C.C.I. & E./J.C.C.I. & E. and particulars of the past licences to the Iron & Steel Controller (Headquarters Office), Calcutta to reach him by the 30th June 1963 at the latest. The percentage of the Base Quota to the extent of which Import Licence will be issued will be intimated later on

INCOME-TAX APPELLATE TRIBUNAL

Income-Tax (Appellate Tribunal) Rules, 1963

NOTIFICATIONS

Bombay, the 17th April 1963

No. I-AT/63—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (5) of section 255 of the Income-tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961), the Appellate Tribunal is pleased to make the following rules:

1. Short title and commencement—(1) These rules may be called the Income-tax (Appellate Tribunal) Rules, 1963.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(i) “Act” means the Income-tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961);

(ii) “authorised representative” means—

(a) in relation to an assessee, a person duly authorised by the assessee under section 288 to attend before the Tribunal; and

(b) in relation to an Income-tax authority who is a party to any proceeding before the Tribunal, a person duly appointed by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette as authorised representative to appear, plead and act for such authority in any such proceeding and any other person acting on behalf of the person so appointed;

(iii) “Bench” means a Bench of the Tribunal constituted under sub-section (1) of section 255, and includes the President or any other Member sitting singly under the provisions of sub-section (3) of the said section and a special Bench constituted under the same provision;

(iv) “member” means a member of the Tribunal;

(v) “prescribed form” means a form prescribed in the rules made by the Central Board of Revenue under section 295;

(vi) “President” means the President of the Tribunal;

(vii) “Registrar” means the person who is for the time being discharging the functions of the Registrar of the Tribunal;

(viii) “Section” means a section of the Act;

(ix) “Tribunal” means the Appellate Tribunal constituted by the Central Government under section 252, and includes, where the context so requires, a Bench exercising and discharging the powers and functions of the Tribunal.

3. Sittings of Bench—A Bench shall hold its sittings at its head-quarters or such other place as it may consider convenient.

4. Powers of Bench—(1) A Bench shall hear and determine such appeals and applications made under the Act as the President may by general or special order direct.

(2) Where at a headquarter other than Bombay there are two or more Benches of the Tribunal, the senior-most Member may transfer an appeal or an application from any one such Bench to any other.

5. Language of the Tribunal—The Language of the Tribunal shall be English.

6. Procedure for filing appeals—(1) A memorandum of appeal to the Tribunal shall be presented by the appellant in person or by an agent to the Registrar at the headquarters of the Tribunal, at Bombay, or to an officer authorised in this behalf by the Registrar, or sent by registered post addressed to the Registrar or to such officer.

(2) A memorandum of appeal sent by post under sub-rule (1) shall be deemed to have been presented to the Registrar or to the officer authorised by the Registrar, on the day on which it is received in the office of the Tribunal at Bombay, or, as the case may be, in the office of such officer.

7. Date of presentation of appeals—The Registrar, or, as the case may be, the authorised officer, shall endorse on every memorandum of appeal the date on which it is presented or deemed to have been presented under rule 6 and shall sign the endorsement.

8. Contents of memorandum of appeal—Every memorandum of appeal shall be written in English and shall set forth, concisely and under distinct heads, the grounds of appeal without any argument or narrative; and such grounds shall be numbered consecutively.

9. What to accompany memorandum of appeal—(1) Every memorandum of appeal shall be in triplicate and shall be accompanied by two copies (at least one of which shall be a certified copy) of the order appealed against, and two copies of the order of the Income-tax Officer.

(2) The Tribunal may in its discretion accept a memorandum of appeal which is not accompanied by all or any of the documents referred to in sub-rule (1).

10. Filing of affidavits—Where a fact which cannot be borne out by, or is contrary to, the record is alleged, it shall be stated clearly and concisely and supported by a duly sworn affidavit.

11. Grounds which may be taken in appeal—The appellant shall not, except by leave of the Tribunal, urge or be heard in support of any ground not set forth in the memorandum of appeal, but the Tribunal, in deciding the appeal, shall not be confined to the grounds set forth in the memorandum of appeal or taken by leave of the Tribunal under this rule:

Provided that the Tribunal shall not rest its decision on any other ground unless the party who may be affected thereby has had a sufficient opportunity of being heard on that ground.

12. Rejection or amendment of memorandum of appeal—The Tribunal may reject a memorandum of appeal, if it is not in the prescribed form or return it for being amended within such time as it may allow. On representation after such amendment, the memorandum shall be signed and dated by the officer competent to make an endorsement under rule 7.

13. Who may be joined as respondent in an appeal by assessee—In an appeal by an assessee under sub-section (1) of section 253, the Income-tax Officer concerned shall be made a respondent to the appeal.

14. Who may be joined as respondent in an appeal by the Income-tax Officer—In an appeal by the Income-tax Officer under sub-section (2) of section 253, the appellant before the Appellate Assistant Commissioner shall be made a respondent to the appeal.

15. What to accompany memorandum of appeal under section 253(2)—In an appeal under sub-section (2) of section

253, a certified copy of the order of the Commissioner directing that an appeal be preferred, shall be appended to the memorandum of appeal.

16. Authorising a representative to appear—In any appeal by an assessee, where the memorandum of appeal is signed by his authorised representative, the assessee shall append to the memorandum a document authorising the representative to appear for him and if the representative is a relative of the assessee, the document shall state what his relationship is with the assessee, or if he is a person regularly employed by the assessee, the document shall state the capacity in which he is at the time employed.

17. Authorisation to be filed—An authorised representative appearing for the assessee at the hearing of an appeal shall, unless the document referred to in rule 16 has been appended, file such a document before the commencement of the hearing.

18. Preparation of paper book, etc.—(1) The Tribunal may, on its own motion or on an application made by either party to the appeal, direct the preparation of a paper-book by and at the cost of the appellant.

(2) On such a direction being given the Registrar or Assistant Registrar, as the case may be, shall call upon the parties to state what papers and documents they desire to be included in the paper-book.

(3) After hearing the parties and taking the directions of the Bench, if necessary, the Registrar or Assistant Registrar, as the case may be shall settle the list of papers to be included in the paper-book and call upon the appellant to furnish four or, if so directed by the President, more copies of the paper-book within a time to be fixed and the appellant shall comply with such directions.

19. Date and place for hearing of appeal to be notified—(1) The Tribunal shall notify to the parties specifying the date and place of hearing of the appeal and send a copy of the memorandum of appeal to the respondent either before or with such notice.

(2) The issue of the notice referred to in sub-rule (1) shall not by itself be deemed to mean that the appeal has been admitted.

20. Date and place of hearing of appeal, how fixed—The date and place of hearing of the appeal shall be fixed with reference to the current business of the Tribunal and the time necessary for the service of the notice of appeal, so as to allow the parties sufficient time to appear and be heard in support of or against the appeal.

21. Grant of time to answer in an appeal under section 253 (1)—In an appeal under sub-section (1) of section 253, in fixing the date for the respondent to appear and answer to the appeal, a reasonable time shall be allowed for the necessary communication with the Commissioner through the proper channel and for the issue of instructions to an authorised representative to appear and answer on behalf of the respondent.

22. Cross objections—A memorandum of cross objections filed under sub-section (4) of section 253 shall be registered and numbered as an appeal and all the rules, so far as may be, shall apply to such appeal.

23. Hearing of the appeal—On the day fixed, or any other day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the appellant shall be heard in support of the appeal. The Tribunal shall, then, if necessary, hear the respondent against the appeal, and in such case the appellant shall be entitled to reply.

24. Dismissal of appeal for appellant's default, etc.—Where on the day fixed for hearing or any other day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the appellant does not appear when the appeal is called on for hearing, the Tribunal may, in its discretion, either dismiss the appeal for default or may hear it ex parte:

Provided that where the appeal has been dismissed for default and the appellant appears afterwards and satisfies the Tribunal that there was sufficient cause for his non-appearance when the appeal was called on for hearing, the Tribunal shall make an order setting aside the dismissal and restoring the appeal.

25. Hearing appeal ex parte—Where on the day fixed for hearing or any other day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the appellant appears and the respondent does not appear when the appeal is called on for hearing, the Tribunal may hear the appeal ex parte.

Explanation—In rules 24 and 25 “appear” means appear in person or through an authorised representative.

26. Continuation of proceedings after the death or adjudication of a party to the appeal—Where an assessee whether he be the appellant or the respondent to an appeal dies or is adjudicated insolvent or in the case of a company is being wound up, the appeal shall not abate and may, if the assessee was the appellant, be continued by, and if he was the respondent be continued against, the executor, administrator or other legal representative of the assessee or by or against the assignee, receiver or liquidator, as the case may be.

27. Respondent may support order on grounds decided against him—The respondent, though he may not have appealed, may support the order appealed against on any of the grounds decided against him.

28. Remand of the case by the Tribunal—Where the Tribunal is of the opinion that the case should be remanded, it may remand it to the authority from whose order the appeal has been preferred or to the Income-tax Officer, with such directions as the Tribunal may think fit.

29. Production of additional evidence before the Tribunal—The parties to the appeal shall not be entitled to produce additional evidence either oral or documentary before the Tribunal, but if the Tribunal requires any documents to be produced or any witness to be examined or any affidavit to be filed to enable it to pass orders or for any other substantial cause, or if the Income-tax Officer has decided the case without giving sufficient opportunity to the assessee to adduce evidence either on points specified by him or not specified by him, the Tribunal may allow such document to be produced or witness to be examined or affidavit to be filed or may allow such evidence to be adduced.

30. Mode of taking additional evidence—Such document may be produced or such witness examined or such evidence adduced either before the Tribunal or before such Income-tax authority as the Tribunal may direct.

31. Additional evidence to be submitted to the Tribunal—If the document is directed to be produced or witness examined or evidence adduced before any Income-tax authority, he shall comply with the direction of the Tribunal and after compliance send the document, the record of the deposition of the witness or the record of the evidence adduced, to the Tribunal.

32. Adjournment of appeal—The Tribunal may, on such terms as it thinks fit, and at any stage adjourn the hearing of the appeal.

33. Proceedings not open to the public—The proceedings before the Tribunal shall not be open to the public. No person other than the assessee, his employees, his authorised representative, the officers of the Income-tax Department and Counsel engaged by the Department, shall without the permission of the Tribunal, remain present during such proceedings.

34. Order to be signed and dated—(1) The order of the Bench shall be in writing and shall be signed and dated by the members constituting it.

(2) Where a case is referred under sub-section (4) of section 255, the order of the member or members to whom it is referred shall be signed and dated by him or them, as the case may be.

35. Order to be communicated to parties—The Tribunal shall, after the order is signed, cause it to be communicated to the assessee and to the Commissioner.

36. What to accompany an application for reference under section 256(1)—An application for reference under sub-section (1) of section 256 shall be in triplicate and shall be accompanied by a list of documents (particulars of which shall be stated) which in the opinion of the applicant should form part of the case, and a translation in English of any such document where necessary.

37. Procedure in respect of application under section 256 (1)—Rules 6,7,12,19,20,21,23,26 and 34 shall apply mutatis mutandis to an application under sub-section (1) of section 256.

38. Who may be joined as a respondent in an application by the assessee—Where the application is by an assessee, the Commissioner to whom the Income-tax Officer is subordinate shall be made a respondent.

39. Who may be joined as a respondent in an application by the Commissioner—Where the application is by the Commissioner, the assessee shall be made a respondent.

40. Same Bench to hear the application—The Bench which heard the appeal giving rise to the application shall hear it unless the President directs otherwise.

41. Time for submission to reply by the respondent—On receipt of the notice of the date of hearing of the application the respondent shall, at least 7 days before the date of hearing, submit a reply in writing to the application.

42. Contents of the reply—The reply to the application shall specifically admit or deny whether the question of law formulated by the applicant arises out of the order, under sub-section (1) of section 254. If the question formulated by the applicant is defective, the reply shall state in what particular the question is defective and what is the exact question of law which arises out of the said order. The reply shall be accompanied by two copies thereof, a list of documents (the particulars of which shall be stated) which in the opinion of the respondent should form part of the case and a translation in English of any such document where necessary.

43. Dismissal if no question of law arises—On the day fixed for the hearing of the application or any other day to which the hearing may have been adjourned, after hearing the parties, the Tribunal shall dismiss the application, if it is of the opinion that no question of law arises out of the order passed under sub-section (1) of section 254.

44. Statement of case to be prepared, if a question of law arises—Where the Tribunal is of the opinion that a question of law arises out of the order under sub-section (1) of section 254, it shall draw up a statement of the case.

45. What to accompany the statement of the case—The Tribunal shall append to the statement documents which in its opinion, should form part of the case.

46. Order on application to be communicated to the parties—The order on the application for reference shall be communicated to the assessee and the Commissioner.

47. Same Bench to deal with requisition from High Court under section 256(2)—Where a requisition is received from the High Court under sub-section (2) of section 256, or where the case is referred back under section 258, it shall be dealt with by the Bench referred to in rule 40 unless otherwise directed by the President.

48. Copy of the judgement of the High Court to be sent to the Bench—When a copy of the judgement of the High Court is received by the Tribunal under sub-section (1) of section 260, it shall be sent to the Bench referred to in rule 40, or any other Bench as directed by the President, for such orders as may be necessary.

49. Scale of copying fees—(1) Copying fees shall be charged as follows:—

- (a) For the First 200 words or less—80 n.P.
- (b) For every additional 100 words or fraction thereof 40 n.P.

(2) Copying fees shall be recovered in advance in cash.

(3) Where a party applies for immediate delivery of a copy of evidence taken down by a stenographer, the fee chargeable shall be 2½ times of those prescribed by sub-rule (1); in such case, fifty per cent. of the fees prescribed by sub-rule (1) shall be paid to the stenographer.

(4) Except in cases where copies are supplied free under the rules or instructions for the time being in force and in cases covered by sub-rule (3), the scale of fees to be charged for the supply of copies urgently shall be twice those prescribed by sub-rule (1).

50. Fees for inspection of records—(1) Fees for inspecting records and registers of the Tribunal shall be charged as follows:—

- (a) For the first hour or part thereof ... 80 n.P.
